Are you ready for General English TQA2?

These are the kinds of questions you could be working on:

Look at a range of social and/or political comment cartoons and collect your own portfolio of five that appeal to you and that you understand the context of. Briefly write reasons for your choices of cartoon and record the source in a reference list that uses the Harvard Referencing System.

Write an analysis of this ad (400 - 500 words) which looks at the context, representation and values.

Create a new ad that reimagines the old one in our modern context.
