| Expanded Practice is designed to build on specific skills, knowledge and experiences gained in Art Production (TASC Level 3) and Art Studio Practice (TASC Level 3) contexts. | • Skill: a deeper understanding of key Art and Design principles that can be applied to their practice
• Knowledge: a developed awareness of recent trends in Contemporary Art practice in relation to their specific discipline and interests
• Exploration: the ability to experiment with diverse concepts and approaches to enrich the development of their college project
• Expression and communication: a capacity to understand, evaluate and articulate concepts, experience and process through collaborative activity, shared critique and journals. | This unit is available to any student completing level 3 Art Production and Studio Practice subject or equivalent.
Students under 18 years of age require permission from a parent for admission and enrolment into this unit. | Two full-day face-to-face contact sessions at the Tasmanian College of the Arts campus (Hunter St or Inveresk) bookmark the beginning and end of the program and are synchronised with major on site exhibitions that will be viewed and discussed as part of the program: Art Rage, displaying the best college work of the previous year, and a Tasmanian College of the Arts postgraduate student survey show. (Dates – TBA).
The face-to-face sessions will be linked via an online program of resources designed to provide: a contextual framework for college projects; opportunity for: peer to peer / student to teacher / teacher to student / mentor to student learning. | Results in this unit will not contribute to TCE/ATAR.
Successful completion of this unit will gain 12.5% credit in a Diploma of General Studies. |
Student Enrolment Information:

This unit requires the completion of a UTAS Admission and Enrolment form and the Request for Commonwealth Support and HECS-HELP form. Please note the Request for Commonwealth Support and HECS-HELP form is required even though your particular program does not incur any fees*. We require the information in this form for Government reporting purposes. Once this process is completed, you will be provided with a student card, email address and login. These will allow you to use UTAS facilities such as the library, and access the online learning content (via MyLo). Please contact Arts Student Central on 6226 7814 to obtain these forms.

You may withdraw from the unit at any time without any financial or academic penalty. You will not be disadvantaged should you not wish to continue with your studies after enrolment. (*International students are advised to contact Arts Student Central on 6226 7814 for more information about their eligibility into the UTAS College Program for 2016).
